Newsletter
Term 4 Week 7

Every student matters. Every moment counts.

Public Speaking Thrives

On Monday during our Assembly, our Public Speaking finalists delivered their speeches to the school. The skills on show were amazing and all of our speakers should be congratulated. The winner, Logan, spoke eloquently on Sir Paul McCartney.

Kinder Orientation

Having a fabulous time at "big school"

Kindergarten Orientation is in full swing and don't our "new" Kindergarten students look like they are having a great time. So many things to do - paint, build, dance and sing, where do we start!

South Shines Brightly for Saly

Sunglasses were definitely a necessity at school yesterday, as lots of us came to school in their brightest clothes to help raise money for Saly, our World Vision Sponsor child. Through your generosity we raised $267. Well done!

Group 4/5 Learning About Lens

In Week 9 the children will be making lens for electronic machines with a group of visiting ANU Engineering students - so we are learning about lens. The children are exploring the features of a website 'Cow Eye Dissection', on ipads. They are using a magnifying glass as a type of lens and are observing how it can create an upside down copy of a picture, just like a human's eye works.

Group 1M Maths Groups

Students in Year 1 are as busy as bees working on their number skills. Students have been partaking in short focused maths lessons targetting their needs. They are all engaged in their learning.

Group 3/4 Nature Table

Artistic pursuits and nature are very important. 3/4B create stunning artworks. Still life drawings of roses from Mrs Grant's garden, using pencils and water colours. Kristina drew this picture using charcoal. Our nature table had 2 visitors today, thanks for bringing them to school Ella.

Remembrance Day

Last Wednesday, 11th November, we observed a minute's silence for Remembrance Day. Earlier in the year our garden club planted 'Remembrance Day' poppy seeds in the small garden bed under the school office window. These poppies are now flowering.
